Re: United States v. Aharon Weichselbaum 07 Cr. 540 (HB)

Dear Judge Bear:

The Government respectfully submits this letter to request a three month adjournment of the October 25, 2007 date currently scheduled for the sentencing of the defendant Aharon Weichselbaum. Due to the press of businesses, the Probation Department has not completed the initial pre-sentence investigation report ("PSR"). Accordingly, the parties request a lengthy adjournment of the sentencing date to allow the Probation Officer adequate time to prepare the report and to allow the parties adequate time to respond to the PSR before it is submitted to the Court. I have spoken with Weichselbaum's counsel, Nina Beattie, Esq, who consents to the application for an adjournment.

Sincerely yours,
MICHAEL J. GARCIA
United States Attorney

RE: Aharon Weichselbaum, Esq. (212) 637-2315 (Fax/Scansimile)
I AM ORDERED: Rhonda L. Jung
Date: 10/22/07
By: Harold Baer, Jr., U.S.D.J. (Faxsimile)

Endorsement:

Sorry but I do not believe defendants benefit from being incarcerated here for longer than absolutely necessary. I will adjourn sentence to December 27 at 11:30 AM and be sure you notify probation so there is ample time to respond to this PSR.
